BOD Press Release - GERMAN NEO-NAZI FUGITIVE

PRESS DATE:

For immediate release:

19 October 1999

The Board of Deputies has asked the Home Secretary to return Germar Rudolf, a neo-Nazi fugitive, to Germany to serve his prison sentence for racial incitement. Rudolf has been found living in Kent, having fled Germany after being convicted of Holocaust denial.

Board Director General Neville Nagler has commented:

"I have written to the Home Secretary asking that this man be returned to Germany to serve his sentence. According to press reports he has been in contact with Far Right sources whilst hiding in this country. So his presence in the UK is hardly conducive to the public good. He should be extradited or deported back to Germany."
